

Roger Yates

*Chairman of the Board of Directors
Pioneer Global Asset Management S.p.A.*

Roger Yates has over 30 years of experience in the fund management industry as an investment professional and business manager.

After graduating as Bachelor in Arts with Honours in Modern History at Worcester College, Oxford in 1978, a post Graduate Certification in Education at the University of Bath in 1979 and performing post graduate studies in modern history at the University of Reading, in 1981 he joined GT Management where he remained until 1988 managing UK and international investments.

He worked as Chief Investment Officer at Morgan Grenfell Investment Management (1988-1994) and at LGT / Invesco Global (1994-1999). Former CEO of Henderson Global Investors UK (1999-2008), in 2003 he led the demerger of Henderson from AMP and its simultaneous listing on the London and Australian stock exchanges.

After resigning from Henderson in August 2008, he held non-executive directorships at IG Group PLC, JP Morgan Elect Investment Trust PLC, India Investment Partners and F&C Asset Management PLC.

From April 2010 to July 2012, he covered the role of Chief Executive Officer at Pioneer Investments and on the Company's Board as non-executive director until May 2013, before being appointed Chairman of the Board.

Currently, he's also non-executive director at St. James's Place Plc and at Electra Private Equity Plc, of which he will become chairman in April 2014.
